

Come join the band!

The High Point Area Arts Council is commissioning a community band in honor of the city's 150th birthday in 2009! The new group is aptly named the High Point Celebration Band and will perform at Sesquicentennial events throughout the year.

Whether you played in the band in high school or college, this new arts education program is for musicians 18 to 80. So dust off your sticks, loosen up your lips, and get ready to make some music for years to come.

The Celebration Band will be directed by Wally West. Mr. West is a professional musician and teacher who also directs the John Coltrane Jazz Workshop and the Youth Jazz Orchestra sponsored by the Arts Council.

No audition is required but you do need to register by January 30! Weekly rehearsals will start on Tuesday, February 3, from 5:30 to 7:00 p.m. in the Arts Council's rehearsal space at 305 N. Main Street, Suite 222, High Point, NC.

There is a monthly tuition of $30 (partial and full scholarships are available). So don't hesitate ... celebrate this new year by getting involved in the arts and joining the band!
